Churchyard burial map

I am researching my maternal family - all of them born and bred in Ross.

Does anyone know where I could find a burial plan of St Marys? I have spoken to the vicar -she cannot help and I have spoken to the Herefordshire record office and they cannot help either.I have managed to find a few of my family,but,having such a huge family, I'm sure there must be plenty more there waiting to be discovered.

We too are researching family who we know were buried in both Ross and Walford. We would be very interested in finding a burial site plan - for both Walford and Ross, we have already found a couple of gravestones in Walford but there are bound to be others - if only we knew where.
