

Families

I am researching my maternal family - all of them born and bred in Ross.

Does anyone know where I could find a burial plan of St Marys? I have spoken to the vicar -she cannot help and I have spoken to the Herefordshire record office and they cannot help either.I have managed to find a few of my family,but,having such a huge family, I'm sure there must be plenty more there waiting to be discovered.

Hello Tina,

I have the same trouble finding family graves in St Mary's. So in May this year I started my project of mapping the graveyard and recording and photographing inscriptions. I live in Co Cork Ireland and have only managed a couple of hundred so far but I intend to finish it next year in May. If you want to give me some details I can check to see if I have any of interest to you so far.

Regards

Geoff
